

Department of Statistics Colorado State University

Faculty Position Starting Fall 2012

The Department of Statistics at Colorado State University invites applications for a tenure track faculty position, starting Fall 2012. A Ph.D. in statistics or a related field and a commitment to high-quality, innovative, and collaborative research and excellence in teaching are required. Outstanding candidates in all areas of statistics and probability are strongly encouraged to apply. The position is expected to be at the Assistant Professor level.

The department currently comprises 14 faculty and over 45 graduate students, and has a network of faculty affiliates at nearby research agencies (National Center for Atmospheric Research, National Institute of Standards and Technology, and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, among others). Our faculty members have a wide range of expertise and are involved in various interdisciplinary graduate training and research activities. Internal and external consulting activities of the department are supported through the Graybill Statistical Laboratory and the Center for Applied Statistical Expertise. Further information about the department and position is available on our webpage <http://www.stat.colostate.edu/>

Fort Collins, the home of Colorado State University, is located one hour north of Denver, in a beautiful location along the Front Range of the Rocky Mountains. Excellent quality of life leads Fort Collins to be consistently ranked in the top 10 among Money magazine's Best Places to Live (ranked 6th in 2010).

An application includes a cover letter, complete CV, graduate transcripts, three letters of reference, statement of research interests (1 page) and statement of teaching philosophy (1 page). Application materials can be uploaded in PDF format at <http://www.natsci.colostate.edu/Employment/Statistics/>. Complete application instructions are available at that site.

Applications completed by November 15, 2011 will receive full consideration, but applications will be accepted after this date until the position is filled. Applications of semifinalist candidates, including letters of reference, will be made available for review by the entire faculty of the Department of Statistics.

Colorado State University does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender, disability, veteran status, genetic information, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. Colorado State University is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer fully committed to achieving a diverse workforce and complies with all Federal and Colorado State laws, regulations, and executive orders regarding non-discrimination and affirmative action. The Office of Equal Opportunity is located in 101 Student Services.

Colorado State University is committed to providing a safe and productive learning and living community. To achieve that goal, we conduct background investigations for all final candidates being considered for employment. Background checks may include, but are not limited to, criminal history, national sex offender search and motor vehicle history.