

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE
Department of Mathematics
Irvine, CA 92697-3875

The Department of Mathematics at the University of California, Irvine invites applications to fill newly endowed chairs—the UCI Excellence in Teaching Endowed Chair in Mathematics. These chair positions are made possible through a gift from the California Community Foundation and provide an annual discretionary research fund to the successful candidates.

The successful candidates, who are expected to be at the associate-professor or full-professor level, will be excellent research mathematicians, with national and international recognition for scholarship, demonstrated excellence in teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and strong commitment to service.

Completed applications must be submitted electronically through Mathjobs (<http://www.mathjobs.org>, PositionID: UCICHAIR. Position Title: UCI - Endowed Chair/Associate or Full Professor.) and must contain

- (1) AMS cover sheet
- (2) Curriculum vitae
- (3) Cover letter
- (4) Research statement
- (5) Teaching statement
- (6) Selected reprints and/or preprints
- (7) Four reference letters

Instructions for the electronic application process can be found at <http://www.mathjobs.org>

Indicate your area of mathematical specialization in field labeled “Area of Specialization” – example: “Applied & Computational Mathematics.”

Applications are welcome at any time. The review process starts February 1, 2010, and will continue until the positions are filled. The University of California, Irvine is an equal opportunity employer committed to excellence through diversity and strongly encourages applications from all qualified applicants, including women and minorities. UCI is responsive to the needs of dual career couples, is dedicated to work-life balance through an array of family-friendly policies, and is the recipient of an NSF ADVANCE Award for gender equity.
