

Sir/Madame

I am the director of biostatistics department at the Harvard Clinical Research Institute (HCRI), a clinical research organization located in Boston MA.

We currently have multiple openings for both biostatisticians and SAS programmers. Could you please pass on the attached job descriptions to the students in the department? If anyone is interested, they can forward their Resume to me (xchen@hcri.harvard.edu).

Thank you,
