

The Department of Statistics at Colorado State University invites applications for two Administrative Professional Research Associate statistical and/or data science collaborator positions in the Graybill Statistics & Data Science Laboratory within the Department of Statistics.

For the Administrative Professional Research Associate II position:

Applicants must hold a MS degree in statistics, biostatistics, data science, or a closely related discipline and have statistical computing software experience (R, SAS, Python, etc.).

For a full job announcement, or to submit an application, visit

<https://jobs.colostate.edu/postings/122171> .

For the Administrative Professional Research Associate III position:

Applicants must hold a PhD degree in statistics, biostatistics, data science, or a closely related discipline and have statistical computing software experience (R, SAS, Python, etc.).

For a full job announcement, or to submit an application, visit

<https://jobs.colostate.edu/postings/122186> .

For both positions:

Preferred qualifications include: Three years of experience in applied/collaborative statistics and/or data science; Demonstrated experience to communicate, written and orally, technical topics to non-technical audiences; and collaborative proposal writing experience, especially related to study design and proposed analysis.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled, but for full consideration, materials should be submitted by March 26, 2023.

CSU is an EO/EA/AA employer and conducts background checks on all final candidates.