

Faculty Positions

Department of Statistics Rutgers University-New Brunswick, School of Arts & Sciences

*****

The Department of Statistics of Rutgers University seeks outstanding applicants for a faculty position of associate professor rank or higher to start in Fall 2024. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in statistics or related fields.

Responsibilities of the position include: teaching and supervising both undergraduate and graduate students, and conducting original research in statistics and data science broadly defined. The department particularly welcomes applicants who can contribute to a diverse and inclusive environment through their scholarship, teaching, mentoring, and professional services. Pursuit of external research funding is expected.

Interested individuals should apply online through <http://jobs.rutgers.edu/postings/214824> providing curriculum vitae, research statement, teaching statement, and arranging for submission and contact information of at least three confidential letters of reference.

Review of applications will start on December 1, 2023, and continue until the position is filled. Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications early. In addition to the department chair, our faculty members welcome the opportunities to assist with any inquiries about this position.

Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

It is university policy to provide equal employment opportunity to all its employees and applicants for employment regardless of their race, creed, color, national origin, age, ancestry, nationality, marital or domestic partnership or civil union status, sex, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, disability status, liability for military service, protected veteran status, affectional or sexual orientation, atypical cellular or blood trait, genetic information (including the refusal to submit to genetic testing), or any other category protected by law. As an institution, we value diversity of background and opinion, and prohibit discrimination or harassment on the basis of any legally protected class in the areas of hiring, recruitment, promotion, transfer, demotion, training, compensation, pay, fringe benefits, layoff, termination or any other terms and conditions of employment.
