Department of Statistics

Rutgers University-New Brunswick, School of Arts & Sciences

*****

The Department of Statistics at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey (New Brunswick Campus), invites applications for a full-time, non-tenure track Teaching Professor to start Fall 2023. The position will be an academic year contract, (pro-rated if necessary) with the possibility of renewal, with the first contract including Fall 2023 and the 2023-2024 Academic Year. Salary and rank will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Responsibilities include: Instructing six three-credit courses in the statistics curricula, both undergraduate and/or graduate levels, for the academic year. We are seeking highly motivated and effective statistics instructors. Experience teaching at the college level, and experience in working with diverse populations of students, is preferred but not required. The successful candidate is required to have a Ph.D. in Statistics or a related field, or a M.S. with extensive teaching experiences.

Applicants should apply at the following site: <https://jobs.rutgers.edu/postings/198659>

Review of applications will start immediately and continue until the position is filled. Applicants are encouraged to submit their applications early.

Affirmative Action/Equal Employment Opportunity Statement

It is university policy to provide equal employment opportunity to all its employees and applicants for employment regardless of their race, creed, color, national origin, age, ancestry, nationality, marital or domestic partnership or civil union status, sex, pregnancy, gender identity or expression, disability status, liability for military service, protected veteran status, affectional or sexual orientation, atypical cellular or blood trait, genetic information (including the refusal to submit to genetic testing), or any other category protected by law.
