Course Description

- The course covers statistical applications in business, involving graphical and numerical descriptions of data, data collection, correlation and simple linear regression, elementary probability, random variables, Binomial and Normal distributions, sampling distributions, and confidence intervals and hypothesis tests for a single sample.
- The purpose of this course is to prepare students for further study and job preparation in the field of Business. It will emphasize understanding of data and interpretation of statistical analyses. It will require students to think of data, and report the results of their analyses, in context.

Learning Objectives

- This course has been approved to meet FSU's Liberal Studies Quantitative and Logical Thinking requirements and helps you become a critical analyst of quantitative and logical claims.
- In order to fulfill the State of Florida's College mathematics and computation requirement the student must earn a "C-" or better in the course.
- By the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to:
 1. Select and apply appropriate methods (i.e., mathematical, statistical, logical, and/or computational models or principles) to solve real-world problems.
 2. Use a variety of forms to represent problems and their solutions.
The above two competencies will be assessed in the Liberal Studies Quantitative Assessment for STA 2023, which includes a written summary of results.
 3. Use descriptive statistics and graphical methods to summarize data accurately.
 4. Use inferential statistics to make valid judgments based on the data available.
 5. Describe the goals of various statistical methodologies conceptually.
 6. Apply statistical techniques in the context of business processes, everyday life, and further studies in their discipline.
 7. Develop a healthy skepticism toward statistical studies and their results based on a sensible consideration of the techniques employed.

Required Materials

- A personal computer, reliable internet connection, and Chrome or Firefox browser.
- A TI-84 Plus or equivalent calculator. We will teach you how to use a TI-84 series calculator, but we cannot promise to be able to help with any other type of calculator.
- A textbook is not required for this class. The instructor will provide all required course notes and exercises. Please note that the materials provided by the instructor were put together for your individual use only. We ask that you do not share them, especially with third parties who are not enrolled in this class. If you seek help outside of class, then you may, of course, allow your helper to see the materials, but please do not allow them to make copies or in any other way take our material. We appreciate your co-operation in protecting our material. Thank you!

The following free online textbook is an additional resource that you might find useful: Introductory Statistics from OpenStax, Print ISBN 1938168208, Digital ISBN 1947172050, www.openstax.org/details/introductory-statistics.

Note on Technology-dependent Assessments

This course is technology-dependent. While we will do our best to work with you on technology issues, please be aware that if you take an assessment but we can find absolutely no record of the fact, then we will not be able to give you credit for it. Please do not use Safari when you take assessments on Canvas, please use Chrome or Firefox.

Grades

- Assessments that are not submitted will receive a grade of zero. When a makeup is submitted, the zero will be replaced with the earned grade.
- If you believe that the grade you received on an assessment is incorrect, please bring it to my attention within 48 hours after the grade has been made available to you. If no issues are raised during that 48-hour time frame, then it will be assumed that the grade is accepted and subsequent requests for a grade review may not be granted.

Notes About Assessments

- For exams, one note sheet (8" x 11.5" piece of paper, front and back, handwritten or typed), your calculator (cannot be your phone), and something to write with is all that is allowed.
- The last day of classes is the ultimate deadline for all quizzes except exam #4.

Late Assessments

- For open quizzes, 5% will be taken off each day the open quiz late, up to 5 days (max 75% if 5 days late). No additional penalties will be added for each day late after 5 days.
- If a student has a documented excuse for missing an open quiz, then an extension may be granted so the student can receive full credit.
- Extensions for exams will only be allowed if there is a documented excuse. If you know cannot complete an exam, please contact the instructor as soon as possible, ideally in advance of the exam if possible. If an exam is missed for any undocumented excuse, a grade of 0 will be inputted and cannot be made up for any reason.
- If a student misses the LSQA, an extension will be granted if there is a documented excuse. Otherwise, 5% will be taken off each day the open quiz late, up to 5 days (max 75% if 5 days late). After these 5 days, the LSQA will be closed completely and cannot be made up.

Syllabus Change Policy

Except for changes that substantially affect implementation of the evaluation (grading) statement, this syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change with advance notice.

Classes Subject to HB233 Recording

In this class, consistent with state law and university policy, students are permitted to make recordings of class lectures for personal use only. As noted, sharing, posting, or publishing classroom recordings may subject you to honor code violations and legal penalties associated with theft of intellectual property and violations of other state law. Moreover, students and educators have expressed concern that recording classroom activities may negatively impact the learning experience for others, especially in classes that involve questions, discussion, or participation. To protect a learning environment in which everyone feels free to experiment with ideas, we ask you refrain from recording in ways that could make others feel reluctant to ask questions, explore new ideas, or otherwise participate in class. Students must monitor their recording so that they do not include participation by other students without permission. Students with disabilities will continue to have appropriate accommodations for recordings as established by the Office of Accessibility Services.
