Course Description
This course provides an introduction to statistics emphasizing applications in Biology. Topics include descriptive statistics, elementary probability, the binomial and normal distributions, confidence intervals and hypothesis tests for means and proportions, correlation and regression, contingency tables and goodness-of-fit tests, analysis of variance and non-parametric tests.
The purpose of this course is to prepare students for further study and job preparation in the field of Biological Sciences including Medicine, Dentistry, other healthcare professions, Veterinary Medicine, Zoology and Botany. It will emphasize understanding of data and interpretation of statistical analyses. It will require students to think of data, and report the results of their analyses, in context.

Learning Objectives
This course has been approved to meet FSU’s Liberal Studies Quantitative and Logical Thinking requirements and helps you become a critical analyst of quantitative and logical claims.
In order to fulfill the State of Florida’s College mathematics and computation requirement the student must earn a “C−” or better in the course.
By the end of the course, students will demonstrate the ability to:
1. Select and apply appropriate methods (i.e., mathematical, statistical, logical, and/or computational models or principles) to solve real-world problems.
2. Use a variety of forms to represent problems and their solutions.
The above two competencies will be assessed in the Liberal Studies Quantitative Assessment for STA 2171, which includes a written summary of results.
3. Use descriptive statistics and graphical methods to summarize data accurately.
4. Use inferential statistics to make valid judgments based on the data available.
5. Select the appropriate statistical tools to analyze a particular problem.
6. Describe the goals of various statistical methodologies conceptually.
7. Develop a healthy skepticism toward statistical studies and their results based on a sensible consideration of the techniques employed.

Required Materials
- A personal computer, reliable internet connection, and Chrome or Firefox browser.
- A TI-84 Plus or equivalent calculator. We will teach you how to use a TI-84 series calculator, but we cannot promise to be able to help with any other type of calculator.

A textbook is not required for this class. The instructor will provide all required course notes and exercises. Please note that the materials provided by the instructor were put together for your individual use only. We ask that you do not share them, especially with third parties who are not enrolled in this class. If you seek help outside of class, then you may, of course, allow your helper to see the materials, but please do not allow them to make copies or in any other way take our material. We appreciate your co-operation in protecting our material. Thank you!

Note on Technology-dependent Assessments
This course is technology-dependent. While we will do our best to work with you on technology issues, please be aware that if you take an assessment but we can find absolutely no record of the fact, then we will not be able to give you credit for it. Please do not use Safari when you take assessments on Canvas, please use Chrome or Firefox.

Grades
Assessments that are not submitted will receive a grade of zero. When a makeup is submitted, the zero will be replaced with the earned grade.
If you believe that the grade you received on an assessment is incorrect, please bring it to my attention within 48 hours after the grade has been made available to you. If no issues are raised during that 48-hour time frame, then it will be assumed that the grade is accepted and subsequent requests for a grade review may not be granted.

- LSQA 10%
- Quizzes 45% (Top 3 out of 4, 15% each, online, 2 attempts, 1hrs/attempt)
- Final exam 30% (December 6th 8am- December 7th 8am, online, 2 attempts, 2hrs/attempt)
- Attendance 15% (Once a week, 3 times of absence is allowed)

All NO collaboration. No talking, No phone usage during testing.

Final Exam Rescheduling Policy
You may not take the final exam before final exams week. Individual students who need to reschedule the final exam for a different time during final exams week should talk to me about it first to get my approval and then fill out and follow the instructions on the “Request to Reschedule a Final Examination” form at https://artsandsciences.fsu.edu/sites/g/files/upcbnu321/files/2022-01/Request_to_Reschedule_01032022.pdf.
The form needs to be submitted to the College of Arts and Sciences before 5pm on the last day of classes. If you experience a documented emergency that prevents you from observing the above deadline, contact me as soon as you are able to, and we’ll take it from there.

University Attendance Policy
Excused absences include documented illness, deaths in the family and other documented crises, call to active military duty or jury duty, religious holy days, and official University activities. These absences will be accommodated in a way that does not arbitrarily penalize students who have a valid excuse. Consideration will also be given to students whose dependent children experience serious illness. Drop and Withdrawal deadlines are given in the University’s academic calendar at https://registrar.fsu.edu/calendar/.

Check them every day before you leave home so that you don’t miss any last minute announcements. If the University closes due to a disaster, we will all be informed via the above means, and classes and office hours will be automatically cancelled even if I don’t announce it. As long as the University remains open, classes will still be on. However, please practice safety first. If it will be unsafe for you to come to class due to the effects of a disaster, please do not attempt to come in. You will not be penalized, we will work with you.

Syllabus Change Policy
Except for changes that substantially affect implementation of the evaluation (grading) statement, this syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change with advance notice.

Classes Subject to HB233 Recording
In this class, consistent with state law and university policy, students are permitted to make recordings of class lectures for personal use only. As noted, sharing, posting, or publishing classroom recordings may subject you to honor code violations and legal penalties associated with theft of intellectual property and violations of other state law. Moreover, students and educators have expressed concern that recording classroom activities may negatively impact the learning experience for others, especially in classes that involve questions, discussion, or participation. To protect a learning environment in which everyone feels free to experiment with ideas, we ask you refrain from recording in ways that could make others feel reluctant to ask questions, explore new ideas, or otherwise participate in class. Students must monitor their recording so that they do not include participation by other students without permission. Students with disabilities will continue to have appropriate accommodations for recordings as established by the Office of Accessibility Services.
