

Non-tenure track Research Assistant Faculty for Department of Mathematics and Statistics at Sejong University, Korea

Sejong University is currently seeking Non-tenure track Research Assistant Faculty for Department of Mathematics and Statistics. We are interested in outstanding candidates who are willing to work in Korea.

Sejong University, located in the heart of downtown Seoul, is a private institution that was founded in 1940. In recent years, we have worked to strengthen academic collaboration internationally, increasing student exchanges, creating dual degree programs, and conducting joint research projects. Please refer to our web site for more detailed information, <http://eng.sejong.ac.kr/index.do>

Regarding the recruitment of Non-tenure track Research Assistant Faculty, we provide accommodation with inexpensive rent. Applicants are encouraged to visit the Sejong University website at http://recruit.sejong.ac.kr/2018/recruit_eng2_2.html and to submit application materials.